2022 Personal Tax Credits Return

Read page 2 before filling out this form. Your employer or payer will use this form to determine the amount of your tax deductions.

Fill out this form based on the best estimate of your circumstances.

If you do not fill out this form, your tax deductions will only include the basic personal amount, estimated by your employer or payer based on the income they pay you.

Last name		First name and initial(s)		Date of birth (YYYY/MM/DD)	Employee number
Address			Postal code	For non-residents only Country of permanent residence	Social insurance number

1. Basic personal amount – Every resident of Canada can enter a basic personal amount of $14,398. However, if your net income from all sources will be greater than $155,625 and you enter $14,398, you may have an amount owing on your income tax and benefit return at the end of the tax year. If your income from all sources will be greater than $155,625, you have the option to calculate a partial claim. To do so, fill in the appropriate section of Form TD1-WS, Worksheet for the 2022 Personal Tax Credits Return, and enter the calculated amount here.

2. Canada caregiver amount for infirm children under age 18 – Either parent (but not both), may claim $2,350 for each infirm child born in 2005 or later, that resides with both parents throughout the year. If the child does not reside with both parents throughout the year, the parent who is entitled to claim the "Amount for an eligible dependant" on Line 8 may also claim the Canada caregiver amount for that same child who is under age 18.

3. Age amount – If you will be 65 or older on December 31, 2022, and your net income for the year from all sources will be $39,826 or less, enter $7,898. If your net income for the year will be between $39,826 and $92,480 and you want to calculate a partial claim, get Form TD1-WS, Worksheet for the 2022 Personal Tax Credits Return, and fill in the appropriate section.

4. Pension income amount – If you will receive regular pension payments from a pension plan or fund (excluding Canada Pension Plan, Quebec Pension Plan, Old Age Security, or Guaranteed Income Supplement payments), enter $2,000 or your estimated annual pension income, whichever is less.

5. Tuition (full time and part time) – If you are a student enrolled at a university or college, or an educational institution certified by Employment and Social Development Canada, and you will pay more than $100 per institution in tuition fees, fill in this section. If you are enrolled full time or part time, enter the total of the tuition fees you will pay.

6. Disability amount – If you will claim the disability amount on your income tax and benefit return by using Form T2201, Disability Tax Credit Certificate, enter $8,870.

7. Spouse or common-law partner amount – If you are supporting your spouse or common-law partner who lives with you and whose net income for the year will be less than Line 1 (Line 1 plus $2,350 if they are infirm), enter the difference between this amount and their estimated net income for the year. If their net income for the year will be Line 1 or more (Line 1 plus $2,350 if they are infirm), you cannot claim this amount. In all cases, if their net income for the year will be $25,195 or less and they are infirm, go to Line 9.

8. Amount for an eligible dependant – If you do not have a spouse or common-law partner and you support a dependent relative who lives with you and whose net income for the year will be less than Line 1 (Line 1 plus $2,350 if they are infirm and you cannot claim the Canada caregiver amount for children under age 18 for this dependant), enter the difference between this amount and their estimated net income. If their net income for the year will be Line 1 or more (Line 1 plus $2,350 or more if they are infirm), you cannot claim this amount. In all cases, if their net income for the year will be $25,195 or less and they are infirm and are age 18 or older, go to Line 9.

9. Canada caregiver amount for eligible dependant or spouse or common-law partner – If, at any time in the year, you support an infirm eligible dependant (aged 18 or older) or an infirm spouse or common-law partner whose net income for the year will be $25,195 or less, get Form TD1-WS and fill in the appropriate section.

10. Canada caregiver amount for dependant(s) age 18 or older – If, at any time in the year, you support an infirm dependant age 18 or older (other than the spouse or common-law partner or eligible dependant you claimed an amount for on Line 9, or could have claimed an amount for if their net income were under $16,748) whose net income for the year will be $17,670 or less, enter $7,525. If their net income for the year will be between $17,670 and $25,195 and you want to calculate a partial claim, get Form TD1-WS and fill in the appropriate section. You can claim this amount for more than one infirm dependant age 18 or older. If you are sharing this amount with another caregiver who supports the same dependant, get the Form TD1-WS and fill in the appropriate section.

11. Amounts transferred from your spouse or common-law partner – If your spouse or common-law partner will not use all of their age amount, pension income amount, tuition amount, or disability amount on their income tax and benefit return, enter the unused amount.

12. Amounts transferred from a dependant – If your dependant will not use all of their disability amount on their income tax and benefit return, enter the unused amount. If your or your spouse's or common-law partner's dependent child or grandchild will not use all of their tuition amount on their income tax and benefit return, enter the unused amount.

13. TOTAL CLAIM AMOUNT – Add Lines 1 to 12.
Your employer or payer will use this amount to determine the amount of your tax deductions.

Filling out Form TD1

Fill out this form only if any of the following apply:

- you have a new employer or payer and you will receive salary, wages, commissions, pensions, employment insurance benefits, or any other remuneration
- you want to change amounts you previously claimed (for example, the number of your eligible dependants has changed)
- you want to claim the deduction for living in a prescribed zone
- you want to increase the amount of tax deducted at source

Sign and date it, and give it to your employer or payer.

If you do not fill out this form, your tax deductions will only include the basic personal amount, estimated by your employer or payer based on the income they pay you.

More than one employer or payer at the same time

- If you have more than one employer or payer at the same time and you have already claimed personal tax credit amounts on another Form TD1 for 2022, you cannot claim them again. If your total income from all sources will be more than the personal tax credits you claimed on another Form TD1, check this box, enter "0" on Line 13 and do not fill in Lines 2 to 12.

Total income less than total claim amount

- Check this box if your total income for the year from all employers and payers will be less than your total claim amount on Line 13. Your employer or payer will not deduct tax from your earnings.

Non-residents (Only fill in if you are a non-resident of Canada.)

As a non-resident of Canada, will 90% or more of your world income be included in determining your taxable income earned in Canada in 2022?

- Yes (Fill out the previous page.)
- No (Enter "0" on Line 13, and do not fill in Lines 2 to 12 as you are not entitled to the personal tax credits.)

If you are unsure of your residency status, call the international tax and non-resident enquiries line at 1-800-959-8281.

Provincial or territorial personal tax credits return

If your claim amount on Line 13 is more than $14,398, you also have to fill out a provincial or territorial TD1 form. If you are an employee, use the Form TD1 for your province or territory of employment. If you are a pensioner, use the Form TD1 for your province or territory of residence. Your employer or payer will use both this federal form and your most recent provincial or territorial Form TD1 to determine the amount of your tax deductions.

If you are claiming the basic personal amount only, your employer or payer will deduct provincial or territorial taxes after allowing the provincial or territorial basic personal amount.

Note: If you are a Saskatchewan resident supporting children under 18 at any time during 2022, you may be able to claim the child amount on Form TD1SK, 2022 Saskatchewan Personal Tax Credits Return. Therefore, you may want to fill out Form TD1SK even if you are only claiming the basic personal amount on this form.

Deduction for living in a prescribed zone

If you live in the Northwest Territories, Nunavut, Yukon, or another prescribed northern zone for more than six months in a row beginning or ending in 2022, you can claim any of the following:

- $11.00 for each day that you live in the prescribed northern zone
- $22.00 for each day that you live in the prescribed northern zone if, during that time, you live in a dwelling that you maintain, and you are the only person living in that dwelling who is claiming this deduction

Employees living in a prescribed intermediate zone can claim 50% of the total of the above amounts.

For more information, go to canada.ca/taxes-northern-residents.

Additional tax to be deducted

You may want to have more tax deducted from each payment, especially if you receive other income, including non-employment income such as CPP or QPP benefits, or old age security pension. By doing this, you may not have to pay as much tax when you file your income tax and benefit return. To choose this option, state the amount of additional tax you want to have deducted from each payment. To change this deduction later, fill out a new Form TD1.

Reduction in tax deductions

You can ask to have less tax deducted on your income tax and benefit return if you are eligible for deductions or non-refundable tax credits that are not listed on this form (for example, periodic contributions to a registered retirement savings plan (RRSP), child care or employment expenses, charitable donations, and tuition and education amounts carried forward from the previous year). To make this request, fill out Form T1213, Request to Reduce Tax Deductions at Source, to get a letter of authority from your tax services office. Give the letter of authority to your employer or payer. You do not need a letter of authority if your employer deducts RRSP contributions from your salary.

EMPLOYEE ACCEPTABLE USE AGREEMENT COMPUTERS/INTERNET/INFORMATION SYSTEMS

St. Paul Education (SPERD) requires that all employees utilizing Division computers, Internet or network infrastructure read and sign this agreement to attest to his/her familiarity with SPERD policies and guidelines which include, but are not limited to, Administrative Procedure 140 Acceptable Technology Use, and Administrative Procedure 141 Portable Technology Security.

This agreement provides general guidelines of prohibited uses but does not attempt to state all required or prohibited activities. Employees who have questions regarding whether a particular activity or use is acceptable should seek further guidance from the Division Technology Coordinator.

Please read this document carefully. When signed by you it becomes a legally binding contract.

Acceptable Use:

It is expected that employees using SPERD systems will conduct themselves in a responsible, decent, ethical and professional manner consistent with a school setting. The Employee agrees that in using SPERD computers and Internet he/she shall obey all federal and provincial laws and regulations. Access is provided as an aid to employees to enable them to better perform their job responsibilities. Under no circumstances shall an employee's use of SPERD computers and Internet interfere with, or detract from, the performance of his/her job-related duties.

Appropriate personal use of the network and personal owned devices is permitted, provided the use does not interfere with the user's work performance, interfere with any other user's performance, have undue impact on the operation of the network or violate any policy, guideline or standard of SPERD.

Educational Purposes:

Employee access to SPERD computers, networks and Internet services is provided for administrative and educational purposes consistent with our educational mission, curriculum and instructional goals. Users shall not use Division services for any illegal, immoral, or private commercial purpose.

Staff Responsibilities to Students:

Teachers and staff members who utilize school computers for instructional purposes with students have a duty of care to reasonably supervise such use. Teachers, staff members and volunteers are expected to be familiar with SPERD policies and rules concerning student computer and Internet use and to enforce them.

Division Passwords

Staff are responsible for changing default passwords and protecting their passwords. Passwords must not be shared with anyone and should be changed periodically.

Passwords should not be the same for all applications.

No Expectation of Privacy:

SPERD retains control and custody of all computers, networks and Internet services and reserves the right to monitor all computer and Internet activity by system users. Employees shall have no expectations of privacy in their use of school computers, including e-mail and stored files. Correspondence in the form of email may be a public record and may be subject to F.O.I.P.P.

Security:

Users shall comply with all network security requirements and shall not attempt to bypass such requirements in any way, compromise the security of data, or vandalize data, software or equipment. Users agree to report any misuse of computer systems to their principal or supervisor.

Updates to Division Technology Use Policies:

Due to the rapidly changing nature of technology, the Division may occasionally modify its policies or other related guidelines. SPERD will make every effort to keep these items available on the Division web site at www.stpauleducation.ab.ca. School Administrators will be informed of the policy changes and will be responsible for ensuring their staffs are kept updated on current policy.

Inappropriate Access to Materials and Conduct:

Users shall not use SPERD computer systems to view, copy, send or print material that is obscene, harmful, pornographic, advocates hate or violence against others, or is otherwise inappropriate in a school setting.

Users shall adhere to high standards of professional conduct and shall not undertake inappropriate communications that are obscene, inflammatory, false or defamatory and shall not include any personal or generalized attacks or harassment. Employees recognize that all email messages sent on a SPERD account/network are communicated as a SPERD employee.

Social Networking:

For school purposes, users shall only use social networking applications that are under the control of the Division such as Moodle and Division Facebook pages. Employees shall at all times refrain from communications with students on public social networking sites such as Facebook or Myspace. Notwithstanding familial contacts, employees shall not engage in electronic communication of a social or personal nature with students and shall ensure they maintain a professional student-employee relationship. Users should appreciate that Internet postings are not private and shall adhere to code of conduct norms with respect to any posting related to their school, the Division, and other employees. A good rule of thumb for staff to student messaging is to answer positively the following question: "Is the content of the message something the principal and the student's parents/guardian would approve of and find necessary?"

Other Prohibited Activities:

Users shall refrain from using abusive or profane language; from using the system to harass, insult, or attack others; from making unauthorized copies of computer software; from gaining unauthorized access to files; from using encryption or other password software to lock systems without permission; from identifying themselves with another person's name or password or using an account or password of another user without proper authorization; from theft or vandalism of data; from intentionally introducing a virus or otherwise improperly tampering with the system; from degrading or disrupting equipment or system performance; or from invading the privacy of another user.

The use of any type of handheld electronic/technology device while driving or operating machinery when on SPERD duties is strictly prohibited.

User Agreement:

I understand that all laptop computers, cell phones, equipment, and/or accessories the school has provided to me are the property of SPERD. I will return the equipment to the Division in the same condition in which it was provided to me.

I understand that I am personally responsible for any damage to or loss of any laptop computer, cell phone and/or related equipment, accessories and data. In case of damage or loss, I will replace or pay the full cost of replacement of the damaged or lost equipment with equipment of equal value and functionality subject to the approval of the Division.

If the device holds sensitive or confidential information, I agree to follow portable technology security guidelines as outlined in Administrative Procedure 141.

I have read, I understand, and I will abide by SPERD policy and these guidelines. I accept that failure to comply with these rules and/or other established procedures governing computer use may result in disciplinary action, up to and including discharge and/or appropriate legal action. I expressly release SPERD, its employees, officers, agents and trustees, from, and hereby expressly assume all liability directly or indirectly associated or resulting from my use of the Network/Internet. My signature indicates that I have read this agreement carefully, understand its significance and voluntarily agree to comply fully with all terms and conditions therein.
